

DIDN'T ASK ME, BUT IT'S ALL RIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO.—"I'll tell the world I'm an American. They couldn't make a Japanese out of me."

Raymond Moore's parents had to move fast when he was born at Sourabaya, Java, a few weeks ago. According to Java law, a baby born in that country of foreign parents, must be naturalized by the consul of its parents' country, within 24 hours or it becomes a Japanese citizen. But Raymond's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Moore, Detroit, Michigan, being patriotic Americans, didn't want any Japanese in their family. They got the consul out of bed shortly after midnight and had the necessary papers before Raymond had time to look around and choose what country he wanted to belong to. The picture shows Raymond and his mother after their arrival back in this country.

RULES FIXED FOR FAIR EXHIBITORS

Time Limit for Applications and Actual Entries Set—Officials Optimistic.

With the opening date of the seventh annual Inter State Fair less than two months away, mail and telephone requests for information concerning exhibit space and regulations are pouring into the office of the secretary.

"They've almost got me swamped," said Sec'y George Y. Hepler, as he peered over a pile of mail that had just been unloaded into his desk at Springbrook Park. "And I wish you would give them these few rules in the newspapers so they can go ahead and make their arrangements without further delay."

"The fair will be held Sept. 13 to 17 and the fair grounds will be open for the reception of stock and articles of exhibition Saturday, Sept. 10; articles from out of the city should be shipped to the exhibitor or his agent."

"All articles and animals entered for exhibition must be placed upon the grounds prior to 6 p. m., Monday, Sept. 12 and if not so placed the owner will forfeit all right to exhibit or compete for premiums except by order of the general superintendent."

Secretary Receives Entries. Entries may be made by addressing the secretary of the fair at South Bend.

"Application for entry in the livestock classes, departments A, B, C, D and E, must be made prior to Tuesday, Sept. 6 at 6 p. m.; only in case of unavoidable accident, and then only on certificate of the general superintendent can this rule be altered."

"Because of the bumper crops generally to be found in this section of the country, and the fact that the fair has been placed on a systematic business basis, there seems to be a new interest in the 1921 fair," said Mr. Hepler. "This enthusiasm on the part of the exhibitors and public, together with the determination of the fair officials to give the cleanest and best fair ever held in this county, sorely bears out the popular belief that the 1921 fair will be a record breaker."

Will Offer Bargains. That the fair will have the unstinted support of retail merchants and business men generally in South Bend and Mishawaka is also assured. When asked concerning their attitude and their plans, a number of the most prominent merchants in both cities declared they would do all in their power to make the com-for getting acquainted with our neighbors from the surrounding country and smaller towns."

Other merchants expressed similar views and it is probable that the result will be some sort of concerted action looking toward the addition of a real bargain carnival during the five days of the fair.

PRINCESS DANCES WITH EX-SOLDIER

LONDON, July 28.—Dennis Taylor, ex-soldier, mopped his perspiring face, as he looked after his partner of the previous dance.

"I—I—I'd rather faced a battery with my old machine gun than dance with her," he stammered. His partner was Princess Mary who paid a surprise visit to the workmen's club in the east end dock district. She danced several times, talked merrily and enchanted members of the club. Dennis was her first partner.

"I was thunderstruck when I saw who it was," he said.
